Objection to Petition for Appointment of Conservator of the Person and Estate; Declaration of Michael D. Owens in Support of Objection to Petition filed by MICHAEL D. OWENS, son, and ELIZABETH FUJINAMI, daughter, on 9/7/2012 states:

- Michael is a son of proposed Conservatee resides in Colorado; Elizabeth is a daughter of proposed Conservatee and resides in Clovis;
- Michael and Elizabeth object to the petition filed by Mark Owens and William Owens, Jr., sons of proposed Conservatee, based upon the following grounds:
 - (a) A conservatorship of the estate is not necessary in that Michael is the duly appointed and acting attorney-in-fact of the proposed Conservatee pursuant to the Uniform Statutory Form Power of Attorney (Power of Attorney) executed by the proposed Conservatee on 2/7/2008; Elizabeth is the alternate named attorney in fact under the Power of Attorney;
 - (b) A conservatorship of the person is not necessary in that Michael is the proposed Conservatee's designated agent under an Advance Health Care Director/Power of Attorney for Health Care (Health Care Directive) executed by the proposed Conservatee on 2/7/2008; Elizabeth is the alternate agent under the Health Care Directive; further, the proposed Conservatee has been residing in Elizabeth's home in Clovis with Elizabeth and Elizabeth's family since about 2008, and there is no need for the proposed Conservatee to be moved; the proposed Conservatee should continue to reside in Elizabeth's home;
 - (c) In the event the Court determines a conservatorship is appropriate, the Petitioners should not be appointed as conservators because Michael rather than the Petitioner is the nominee of the proposed Conservatee as conservator of the person, and Elizabeth is the alternate nominee;
- Objectors request (1) the Court deny the Petition for Appointment of Conservator of the Person and Estate filed by Mark Owens and William Owens, Jr.; or (2) Alternatively, should the Court determine conservatorship is necessary, the Court appoint Michael D. Owens and Elizabeth Fujinami as co-conservators of the person and estate of the proposed Conservatee after notice and hearing on a petition for appointment filed by Michael and Elizabeth.

Declaration of Michael D. Owens in Support of Objection to Petition for Appointment of Conservator of the Person and Estate of Octavia Ruth Owens, Proposed Conservatee [attached to Objection] states:

- On February 7, 2008, his mother (proposed Conservatee) signed several legal documents prepared at her request, including a Pour Over Will dated 2/7/2008, the Octavia R. Owens Living Trust dated 2/7/2008, Uniform Statutory Form Power of Attorney dated 2/7/2008 (POA), and Advance Health Care Directive/Power of Attorney for Health Care dated 2/7/2008 (AHCD);
- He is appointed as his mother's attorney-in-fact, and his sister, Elizabeth, is appointed as the alternate attorney-in-fact (copy of POA attached as Exhibit A); the POA became immediately effective; the POA is durable and continues to be effective notwithstanding any incapacity experience by his mother; he has been acting as his mother's attorney-in-fact under the POA, and desires to continue to fulfill her expressed intent by acting as her attorney-in-fact under the POA;
- He is designated as agent under the AHCD to make health care decisions for his mother, and his authority became immediately effective; Elizabeth is designated as alternate agent (copy of AHCD attached as Exhibit B); in the AHCD, his mother nominated him to act as her conservator in the event a conservator of her person becomes necessary; Elizabeth is nominated as alternate [agent]; he has been acting as his mother's agent under the AHCD, and he desires to continue to fulfill his mother's expressed intent by acting as her agent under the AHCD;
- Since 2008, his mother has been living with his sister, Elizabeth, in her Clovis home where Elizabeth resides with her family, and he believes it is in his mother's best interest to continue to live with Elizabeth in her Clovis home and believes that moving his mother from Elizabeth's home would be detrimental to his mother's health and well-being.

~Please see additional page~

Declaration of Judy Baldwin filed 9/11/2012 by Petitioners' attorney Leigh Burnside states:

- She is one of the children of the proposed Conservatee; the Petitioners are her brothers; the Objectors are her sister and brother;
- After Petitioners Mark and William filed their petition, she spoke on the telephone to her sister Elizabeth (Betty), and Betty told her that she had spoken to their mother about the petition and informed our mother that Mark and William were trying to take her away from Betty and put her in jail; Betty further stated that after she made that comment to their mother, their mother began sobbing uncontrollably and latched onto Betty's neck;
- She does feel that over the years, Betty has interfered with Mark's and William's efforts to see and communicate with their mother; she does not know the reason she has done so;
- Their father was buried on 2/2/2008, and the power of attorney documents attached to Betty and Michael's Objection were signed five days later on 2/7/2008; at that time, their mother was grieving their father's death and was already mentally declining and having trouble communicating with others;
- Betty and Michael never shared with her, or to her knowledge, with any of her other siblings, that their mother had created a trust and signed a power of attorney and health care directive.
